morrow caused considerable figures.

In oats only a fair business was doing, the feeling being weak in sympathy with wheat and corn.

Provisions were very weak, principally due to the large receipts of hogs, atthough the general weakness of the grain markets had some influence. July pork closed the lower, July jurd 10c, and July ribs 10c lower.

Batimated for to-morrow—Wheat, 18 cars; corn, 428 cars; oats, 40 cars; hogs, 25,000 head.
